Effective April 18, 2003, prior public school teaching experience for incoming teachers earned in states other than Wyoming may be allowed upon approval of the Superintendent. All Wyoming teaching experience will be allowed. Partial years of experience, 1/2 year or greater, will qualify as a full year.

To qualify for placement on the B.A. + 20 step, the teacher may have undergraduate hours in their field. Hours above the B.A. + 20 must be graduate hours in the teacher's field.

Graduate hours used for horizontal advancement must be earned after the most recent appropriate degree or step was conferred.

Undergraduate hours earned after May 1, 1996 may count towards horizontal advancement, if the class has the prior approval of the superintendent and it corresponds with the teacher's area of teaching responsibility or with a district staff development goal.
